For session dates and times contact the Director Tracey Hobday, the Service Leader or Administration Officer.

Activities: BBM travels around the Western area, providing approved child care and play sessions. The service aims to promote the development of each child socially, emotionally, intellectually, creatively and physically through caring relationships, the provision of appropriate activities and quality educational resources. This is particularly important for children in isolated areas who are able to learn and enjoy the company of other children.

Parents also benefit from the play sessions, as they provide an opportunity for social contact and interaction.

Most venues are visited on a fortnightly basis, with long day-care sessions at the Marra operating every week and Collie every fortnight.

Venues: Bogan Bush Mobile visits the following centres: Marra (one day per week child care), Collie (one day per fortnight child care), play sessions at Hermidale, Tottenham, Trangie, Mungery, Nyngan, Duck Creek, Marthaguy and Narromine.
